Rife's 200 acre Ranch

The 200 acre awe-inspiring open volcanic grassland ranch is located in Des Moines, NM anchored by Sierra Grande and Capulin mountains, two of the many surrounding volcanoes. The ranch has a small 2 bed, 1 bath older ranch home along with older storage buildings, sheds and pens. There is a submergible well providing water to the house and a windmill to the north, both providing adequate water for the 200 acres. This area is not only famous for its numerous volcanoes but also for its production of strong grass. Plus the grass has not been used in several years...
